GLENDALE'S FIRST MAY FESTIVAL

How It Was Celebrated—A Large Crowd of Visitors—Everybody Says It was a Great Success —Notes and Incidents

It was a typical California day, and that disposes of the weather. Mr. Turner who had the contract for the decoration of the streets and public buildings, had been at work all week since Monday and the principal portion of the business part of town was gay with streamers, flags and bunting. Looking either way along Fourth street between Glendale avenue and Brand Boulevard, the eye was greeted with a cheerful show of bright colors waving in the breeze from the numerous strings of pennants thrown across the street from telephone and power poles. The business houses were all decorated more or less successfully and a few residences presented a fine appearance. The people began to come in about eleven o'clock and when they lined up at the barbecue counter there was probably a crowd of three or four thousand in the neighborhood of Fourth and Kenwood where the luncheon was served. The crowd increased until after one o'clock. The five thousand plates provided by the barbecue committee were all handed out and probably a thousand or more were served. By four o'clock the tired but willing workers at the barbecue pit had to tell the occasional applicants for a "hand-out" that the meat was all gone. Two or three boxes of the eight hundred loaves of bread were left, but there was nothing saved to go with it.

Visitors who arrived before noon were taken out riding as far as they could be accommodated by the four or five autos whose owners had volunteered for the day and by the stylish tally-ho of the Central stable, but this feature of the day was hardly up to expectations on account of the limited number of vehicles furnished. In the afternoon the Salt Lake company furnished three special trains to carry visitors to and from Verdugo Park and they were well patronized, on the first in particular there was a crowd unable to obtain seats. Manager Goode of the Glendale-Eagle Rock road had two cars running and carried passengers free all day across the city.

The sports at the ball ground, corner Fifth and Glendale, held the crowd all the afternoon. The performance of the Vaquero Club of Los Angeles, proved a great drawing card and gave great pleasure to the spectators to the most of whom the feats of horsemanship exhibited were a novelty. For some reason the band which the Pacific Electric was to furnish did not materialize and the supply of music was short until 3 o'clock when the Examiner boys arrived and from that time on furnished an abundance of good music. Near the barbecue pit, however, just across Kenwood street, a merry-go-round furnished what might pass for music with the noncritical audience that crowded about the refreshment counter and added its mite to the enlivening of the occasion.

The baseball game in which Glendale met the Alhambra combination and defeat at the same time, wound up the afternoon's sport. The crowd remained all day and many of them stayed over for the evening's program. There was an audience of probably 2500 people about the grandstand for the evening performance although the program was simple and brief. Mr. H. P. Coker, president of the Board of Trade, called the meeting to order and made an appropriate speech of welcome, calling attention to the display made by the new electric lighting system and giving expression of appreciation for the services of all those who had contributed to the success of the affair. He named particularly the Los Angeles papers which have been generous of their space in advertising Glendale since the campaign began, and thanked Mr. R. G. Doyle and the others who had worked hard to make the festival a success. The chairman then introduced Col. T. C. Thornton, who spoke in glowing terms of Glendale, its merits, accomplishments and its bright future. His only cause for complaint was that whereas he had come to Glendale three or four years ago to lead a quiet life in a retired spot far from the busy haunts of men, a lot of good neighbors were now crowding in upon him. Mr. Andrew Park, editor of the Los Angeles Independent, also spoke briefly and in eloquent terms of Southern California in general and Glendale in particular.

The Examiner band played inspiring airs in the intervals. Mr. Lee C. Gates, the well-known orator, delivered the principal address of the evening, and stirred the audience to immense enthusiasm by his glowing words and eloquent prophecies of greatness for Glendale and vicinity and the great San Fernando valley.

The Japanese broad-sword contest, which wound up the program, was like other events a success and the crowd enjoyed seeing the two lusty swordsmen swipe each other with their heavy weapons of wood.

* * *

The length of the program necessitated the cutting out of several of the numbers on the list of sports, but the following were put through successfully and prizes awarded as follows:

50-yard dash, boys under 7, won by Theodore Mack, prize a baseball bat, contributed by Anderson Book Store.

50-yard dash, boys between 7 and 13, won by Danny Goode, prize Ingersoll watch, given by A. B. Cohn & Co., Los Angeles.

Broad jump, won by Glen Craig of Burbank, prize cuff links, donated by J. B. Solomon, Los Angeles.

100-yard dash, also won by Glen Craig, prize a sweater, contributed by Star Clothing Co., of Los Angeles.

Potato race, won by John Fischel, prize Brownie Kodak, donated by Shaver Bros., Glendale.

Sack race, won by Guy Pixley, prize umbrella, contributed by committee.

Three-legged race, won by Morrow and Smith, prize tennis racquet, Tuffs-Lyons Co., Los Angeles; second prize, Fischel and Craig, prize track shoes, A. G. Spalding and Bros., Los Angeles.

Fat man's race, won by Patrick Quinn, street inspector, Los Angeles, prize, an order for a hat, contributed by GLENDALE NEWS.

There were a number of other prizes up by Glendale merchants for events which did not come off owing to the short time remaining for the baseball game.

Assisting in serving at the barbecue were noted the fololwing: E. U. Emery, chairman of barbecue committee; R. G. Doyle, barbecue expert, and Don Pedro, barbecue chef and his Mexican assistants; F. H. Wilde, Oliver Logan, jr., C. O. Pulliam, W. B. Kirk, Allen Bullis, Will Shaver, W. L. Nelson, Fred Evans, C. E. Shaver, F. J. Muehlman, H. P. Coker, W. A. Anderson, Archie Shaver, Albert Marple.

Marshal Miller bestrode a fine black horse furnished him for the day by the Glendale Stables.

E. H. Owen, did good service in the capacity of mounted policeman at the ball grounds, although like all the rest of the special officers provided for the day, he had a sinecure.

Among old timers now living elsewhere who came out to see Glendale we noted the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hollenbeck, S. J. Coleman and wife, G. W. Woodward, E. H. Nittinger, Robert Devine and others.

The special officers had very little to do, it was an orderly crowd that did not require much watching. Mrs. Emil Kohn of Los Angeles lost a valuable diamond for the return of which she offers a reward of $25.

City Marshal Miller advertises a purse found containing some money. A watch was also reported lost.

The committee on prizes for best decorated business establishments gave the first award to the Watson block, and the second to Fliger block with a special award to the store of J. N. McGillis. One of the most notable examples of fine decorating was to be seen in the windows of Logan Bros. grocery. Fruits, grains, vegetables, etc., were used artistically in the color schemes with fine effect and the display attracted much attention. On Brand boulevard, Electrician Taylor erected a large sign containing the word "Welcome" which blazed out at night in cleverly arranged electric light bulbs. Mr. J. W. Usilton was awarded a prize for the best decorated residence.

Good work was done by the following auto owners: H. A. Bartlett, J. C. Pierce, R. A. Blackburn, H. M. Overton and W. R. Middleworth.

A committee of the Tuesday Afternoon club with headquarters at Odd Fellows hall did much to assist in caring for visitors and adding to their comfort. At the Guild Hall, the ladies of St. Marks Guild kept open house all day and served light refreshments.

A number of ladies at the Country Club house extended to visitors the hospitality of the club. Many of the visitors wandered about the city at their own sweet will and met everywhere with a cheering spirit of hospitality.

Credit for the success of the day is largely due to the finance committee, C. O. Pulliam, chairman, who was ably assisted by C. H. Allen, J. M. Freeman, and W. G. Watson.

Mr. E. U. Emery did good work as chairman of the barbecue committee, assisted by Messrs. Stanley, Grist and others.

J. W. Usilton, president of the Improvement Association, and F. J. Muehlman were among the good workers. Mr. W. A. Anderson of the committee on building and grounds, had his hands full and did well. Mr. H. L. Howe of the High school, proved to be the right man for the sports program and he put them through with a vim.

Mr. Turner, the decorator, lost about thirty flags, which were undoubtedly stolen. A "hay ride" party from the alfalfa country rests under suspicion in connection with the theft, as they were seen in the act of carrying off some of them.

The general opinion seems to be that the festival being such a grand success, it follows that it should be made a yearly affair and some action will no doubt be taken soon for the appointment of a permanent committee.

REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING.

A ride up through the valley in the neighborhood of the West Glendale school house, discloses unusual activity in the building line. On Milford street between Central and Remington being erected by the Pioneer Building Co., Mr. F. W. Pigg superintending, five new houses are under way and a sixth is just being started. These are The same company expects to put through a deal for a batch of 14 lots in a short time in which event they will proceed to put up several more houses. They have built four houses lately on Fairview west of Louise street. The price on these improved lots will be $3500, the houses being of a good class. East of the school house on the extension of Sycamore street, Mr. Taylor of Los Angeles is building a $1500 house and will start in a short time another, making three in this block. Drake & Miner, contractors. The biggest job, however, is being done by the Co-operative Building Co. of Los Angeles, who have now under way a batch of twenty houses on both sides of a short street running east and west, north of Dryden street and west of San Rafael avenue. They will build nine more before they stop. They are attractive although not expensive buildings, the lots improved by them will sell for from $2200 to $2700. There are four new houses on Arden avenue between Brand and Central, all good high-class residence structures. In the same neighborhood, Mr. Canfield's two-story residence is being completed rapidly.

Mr. Geo. W. Strobel has recently made a sale of seven lots on Boynton street, Tropico, to various parties.

The Overton Realty Co. report the following sales:

DEATH OF JOS. F. MAIER.

At his home on Oak street last Saturday, Jos. F. Maier, an old resident of Glendale, died and was buried from his residence on Monday, interment being made at Grand View cemetery. Rev. S. Lawrence Ward preached the funeral sermon and a large number of friends and neighbors followed him to his last resting place. Mr. Maier for some time past had been afflicted with a malady of the brain. He was a soldier in the German army in its war with Austria and later with France. He leaves a widow and three children.

CITY TRUSTEES

The Usual Routine—Dogs to be Muzzled—City Treasurer Dominy Fails to Qualify

All present except Mr. White. Routine business was taken up; committees asked extension of time owing to the interference of the May festival with the ordinary duties of members. The street superintendent reported that at Sixth and Louise, it would be necessary to change the crown of the street on account of difference in quality of work on the two streets. He was instructed to attend to it. The city marshal reported the killing of a dog in Lomita Park, which was evidently afflicted with rabies. The health officer supported the report of the marshal and recommended that dogs be muzzled for a period of four months, as there is undoubtedly a prevalence of rabies in Los Angeles and vicinity and the measure is necessary for public safety. The ordinance in effect at present does not provide for any place of detention for dogs captured by the marshal, there being no city "pound," the marshal using his discretion as to killing dogs. Considerable discussion followed in regard to the establishment of a "pound." Mr. Watson favored the present ordinance, as long as the marshal used discretion, as he had done in the past and feared that a change in the ordinance would weaken its effect, as its working heretofore had been very satisfactory. Mr. Coker objected to giving the marshal power to kill dogs promiscuously, as he objected to dogs being killed on the streets, as had been done on a few ocasions.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Coker which was duly seconded and adopted, to the effect that all dogs in the city of Glendale be prohibited for a period of four months from running at large in any public place without a muzzle, unless led by chain or line. A communication was received from former Treasurer-elect H. G. Dominy stating that he was unable to qualify for the office to which he had been elected, and the matter was referred to the city attorney to recommend action covering the case. A communication was received from Mrs. Margaret Brown requesting that Parker Drive to be abanodned, it being on the east line of the city, half in the city and half in the county. Referred to the city attorney.

Mr. Coker was anxious to take up the matter of the Pacific Electric crossings on Brand boulevard, but the opinion of the majority of the board favored postponing action until the return of Mr. White, the chairman, and it was therefore deferred.

The matter of appointing a deputy city assessor was briefly discussed and laid over. Ordinance amending ordinance regulating the construction of buildings in fire district Number One, was taken up and passed third reading. An ordinance changing the name of Mary street to Maryland avenue and of Oak Drive to Ninth street, was read first and second times.

A resolution to vacate the west 30 feet of Parker Drive, was adopted. The manager of the electric light system was instructed to take up the matter of a rearrangement of the poles of the various utilities on Fourth street, with a view to doing away with some of them.

GLENDALE, CAL., MAY 20, 1910

The offer of the American Press Association to furnish a twelve-page life of Mr. James Jeffries, all written by himself, is declined with thanks. Mr. Jeffries possibly lives up to his "lights," and as a man mauler is a great success, but the realm of literature is not the gainer by his breaking into it.

Earl Rogers, a criminal attorney of Los Angeles, was arrested a few days ago by the marshal of Upland in San Bernardino county, for reckless driving in his auto. Rogers is the same man who while rushing through Burbank at reckless speed a year or so ago, wrecked a buggy standing by the roadside without stopping to see what damage he had done. It is to be hoped that he will get a good dose of the law, the penalty of which many criminals have escaped through his efforts.

THE RECENT CONTRIBUTION RE PINCHOT-BALLINGER.

There will no doubt be an attempt made in some quarters to reflect upon President Taft on account of the Lawler letter which was turned over to the Pinchot-Ballinger committee. There seems to be nothing to the affair except as showing the methods by which an executive is enabled to attend to his multifarious duties. Instead of dictating documents to which he appends his name as the author, he calls upon a subordinate, probably more familiar with the case, to draft the instrument so as to express as nearly as possible his desires. In this case the result was submitted to the president to be approved or rejected in part or as a whole, and it seems that only a phrase or two of the Lawler effort was adopted by the president. In a letter to Chairman Nelson, President Taft in explaining the affair says that he told Mr. Lawler "to write the letter just as if he was president." The result seems to show that our own Oscar's idea of being president does not accord with that of Mr. Taft, for the latter out of the 6000-word effort only gleaned a few words.

THE ENDOWED NEWSPAPER.

This paper has not been requested to express an opinion upon the proposition broached by Prof. Ross of the Chicago University that Andrew Carnegie endow a newspaper that shall be non-sectarian, non-political and non-everything else that is sometimes bad, but we gladly volunteer one. Prof. Ross is dissatisfied with the newspapers of today; in his opinion they are unreliable, do not print the news and have no independence of opinion. Further than that, Mr. Ross seems to have an idea that a newspaper endowed with a few millions of Mr. Carnegie's surplus dollars would possess all of the virtues which are conspicuous by their absence in the newspapers of today. Prof. Ross is probably in error on more than one count and it is unlikely that Mr. Carnegie will cramp himself in order to supply the learned professor with his ideal newspaper; because, for one reason he would have to hire Prof. Ross to edit it. No other editor could please Ross. The dollars of the millionaire have their limitations, in possibilities of accomplishment if not in number. They may be as numerous as the sands on the seashore but they cannot buy perfection, and if attained it would be something so superhuman in its character that we should not recognize it. The suppression of news by newspapers is not a common fault, but the relative importance of the events of the day do not impress themselves similarly upon different individuals. If, for instance, Prof. Ross should sometime discover that his name had been stricken from the pay roll of Chicago University, he would doubtless be of the opinion that it was a matter of prime importance and entitled to the choicest position on the first page of the model endowed newspaper, while to the unsympathetic editors of rival, unendowed publications, it might seem to be a matter that the world cared little about and would be accorded only a line or so. Newspapers in general are fairly honest and certainly as truthful as the average of humanity, but they are yet a few degrees removed from infallibility. Possibly none of the men who control them are absolutely independent, they are influenced more or less by a desire to please their patrons; but this is a fault so common in the business world that the managers of newspapers are neither unique or lonesome in this respect, and it is unlikely that the endowed newspaper, although under no necessity to cater to advertisers or subscribers, would occupy such a high plane as to be absolutely free from warping influences. In his laudible ambition to get rid of his money as fast as possible, it seems remarkable that Mr. Carnegie has not tried the newspaper business, but here is his opportunity. Let him endow Professor Ross at once, editors all over the world will favor the experiment—a perfect newspaper, speaking the truth without bias; publishing all the news without prejudice and giving an example of journalism that is altogether good, will certainly be hailed with delight by the newspapers of the world.

THE FESTIVAL.

The success of the Glendale May Festival is a settled fact and our people are to be congratulated that a large number of outsiders who did not know Glendale before, are now well acquainted with it and no doubt favorably impressed. The prime object of the affair was to call the attention of the outside world to our existence and our achievements—to advertise ourselves, in brief, and we did it. It is easy enough to imagine many ways in which improvements could have been made, but it would be profitless to mention them. That the first experiment was so much of a success, is sufficient, and we believe that good results will be noticeable for a long time. The daily papers of Los Angeles treated us very generously by throwing open their columns to numerous notices of the affair and by having reporters on the ground when the day came. The immediate effect upon our own people was good. A large number of property owners acted upon the suggestion of the Improvement Association and cleaned up sidewalks and parkways so that there is a quite noticeable improvement along our streets. Perhaps the best and most noticeable feature in connection with the affair was the spirit of loyalty and good fellowship manifested. There was no evidence of sectionalism and the workers from the beginning to the end of it came together from all quarters.

* * *

One thing in particular should be borne in mind by our people, and that is that it was the generous contributions made by the merchants and business men of the town that made the affair possible. They were not the sole contributors, of course; others, and some who had little or no direct interest in Glendale, gave liberally; but the principal burden fell upon the merchants. This fact is mentioned for the consideration of the people at large who sometimes forget that Glendale's business men deserve the patronage of the home community. Every day, express wagons come to Glendale and Tropico laden with goods purchased in Los Angeles. The trade represented by these purchases would support several business concerns in the home community, and in most cases it would cost the purchasers of these goods very little or nothing more to "buy at home."

* * *

Another point is brought out by this affair. The idea of holding a celebration of the completion of our electric lighting system, originated with the Board of Trade, but that body had no sooner announced its intention of holding the celebration, than the Improvement association heartily joined in, and the two organizations worked together in perfect harmony and brought the affair to a successful conclusion. The work that these two bodies have done should commend them to the people in all parts of the city and in the community adjoining, for when well supported they have in them a great power for good. Sometime it is to be hoped that these two organizations will combine and form a single working force stronger than either can be alone, but possibly for the present they can best work separately. Be that as it may, the Board of Trade and the Improvement Association should have the support of the people of Glendale and vicinity, for they can do much to unify and upbuild the community.

INTERESTING ASTRONOMICAL COMBINATION.

The comet will be a fine object in our western skies after the 20th of May and will doubtless attract universal attention, but the bright moonlight will somewhat interfere with the splendor of the stranger. On Monday, May 23rd, however, there will be a total esclipse of the moon, and for nearly an hour, from 9 to 10 p. m., Pacific standard time, the comet will have no rival, and as it will not set until about 11 o'clock, it is hoped all will enjoy the wonderful sight of the comet and the eclipse, a combination one may never again have an opportunity of observing.

The eclipse will begin by the moon passing into the earth's shadow at 7:46 p. m., the toality will begin at 9:09 and end at 9:57, the moon finally emerging from the shadow at 11:22 p. m.

The moon will be at its greatest distance from the earth, 250,900 miles, the earth's shadow will be 870,000 miles long, and 5740 miles in diameter, where the moon crosses it. On Saturday, May 21st, the head of the comet will set two hours and nineteen minutes after sunset; on Sunday 22d, three hours nine minutes after, and on the 23rd, three hours and forty-six minutes after the sun. So there will be abundant opportunity to see the mysterious visitor if only the skies are clear.

Your Checks are Receipts

"Pay as you go" is an excellent maxim provided you "pay-by-check." It's foolish to carry money on the person, except for the smallest purchases and incidentals, for aside from the care and inconvenience there is always the danger of theft or loss.

But with a check-book of this bank in your pocket the inconvenience and worry is eliminated. You write out a check for the exact amount of each purchase, your check-stub is a record for reference and the check itself will later be returned to you by the bank and may be retained as a receipt.

Some persons may think of the check account as being complicated. Nothing could be more simple, however. We keep books for you and there is a record for your every transaction.

A franchise to construct, maintain and operate for the period of forty-seven years, an electric railroad for the transportation of passengers, to be single or double track, in whole or in part, at the option of the grantee thereof or his or its successors or assigns, over the route and along and upon the streets or portions of said streets in said City, described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at a point in Glendale Avenue where the Westerly prolongation of the Southerly line of Lot Eight (8) in Block Twenty (20) of the Town of Glendale, as per map recorded in Book 21, pages 89 and 90 Miscellaneous records of Los Angeles County, California, intersect a line situated 13 feet Easterly from and parallel with the center line of Los Angeles, San Pedro & Salt Lake Railroad; thence Northerly parallel with the center line of said railroad to the Northerly City boundary line of the City of Glendale.

Together with the right to construct curves and switches and spur tracks into private property, also connections at street intersections, power houses and all other appliances, property, structures and attachments that may be necessary for the purpose of operating said road, and enabling it to be as effective as the best electric railroad; provided, however, that no spur track into private property shall be built within 500 feet of any spur track already constructed under said franchise, without first securing proper consent of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale.

That the terms and conditions upon which said franchise will be offered for sale, and granted, are the following, to-wit:

First. That the railroad to be constructed and operated under said franchise shall be used for the transportation of passengers, baggage, United States mail, Express matter and such other commodities as can be conveniently handled by an electric railroad, provided that cars other than closed ones, of a neat and attractive design, shall only be conveyed over said road between the hours of nine o'clock p. m. of each day and six o'clock a. m. of the following day; also such material as is used in the construction of the Glendale and Eagle Rock Railway from its northerly beginning to its present eastern terminus in Eagle Rock valley, existing at this date, and for such other extensions thereof as may from time to time be constructed within the City Limits of the City of Glendale.

In case the said grantee or his or its successors and assigns, shall fail to comply with the instructions given for said repairs for ten days after service of notice thereof upon the Superintendent or Manager of said electric railroad, then the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale may, with suitable assistance, enter upon said electric railroad, or any portion thereof, and do the work and furnish the proper material and keep an itemized account of the cost thereof, which said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, by the acceptance of this franchise agrees to pay immediately to the Treasurer of the City of Glendale upon the presentation of the account to the Superintendent or Manager of said electric railroad.

Provided further, that cars shall be run over the road constructed under said franchise every day, unless prevented by the elements, riots, strikes or unavoidable causes; provided also, that cars shall be run over and upon said road at intervals of not more than one (1) hour from seven o'clock a. m. until ten o'clock p. m. of each day, and as much oftener as may be necessary to properly accomodate all persons who apply for transportation over said road, except in times of extraordinary and unforseen amounts of travel.

Provided further, that said grantee and his or its successors and assigns shall have the right to excavate and remove portions of said streets necessary to properly construct said road and to erect needful apparatus, boilers, engines and other appliances to properly equip and run said road; provided further, that the City of Glendale, in granting said franchise, expressly reserves the right to pave, macadamize, renew or sewer any of said streets, or to lay gas, water or other pipes therein; said work to be done so as to injure said road as little as possible.

It is further provided that said grantee, and his or its successors and assigns, shall construct all necessary flumes and culverts for the free passage of water under the tracks of said railroad whenever and wherever necessary, and that all such flumes and culverts shall be constructed in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the City Engineer, and wherever required by said City of Glendale.

Third. That the grantee of said franchise and his or its successors or assigns, shall and will at all times upon and after the completion of said road, during the operation of the same and without extra charge, issue to and receive from passengers going in one direction, transfers good for one continuous passage over and upon any and every other line and lines or any other road or roads to any points within the said City, which said grantee or his or its successors or assigns does now, or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in. And provided as a further condition that said grantee, and its successors and assigns shall and will at all times as aforesaid, issue or cause to be issued to said passengers, without extra charge, a similar transfer from any and every other line or lines, which said grantee, or its successors or assigns does now or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in within said City of Glendale as aforesaid, to, over and upon the road operated and maintained under said franchise within the City Limits of the City of Glendale, and provided further, that such transfers shall be given and received as above provided, over and upon all such roads within the City Limits of the City of Glendale whether operated under a franchise granted by said City, or over and upon private rights-of-way owned or occupied by said roads within the City Limits of the City of Glendale.

Fourth. That the rate of fare for any distance within the City Limits over said road or its branches one way in the same direction shall not exceed five cents per one passenger; that persons under the age of eighteen years who attend the public schools of said City shall be required to pay but half fare; provided that said pupils shall purchase their tickets in quantities of at least One dollar's worth at a time, such tickets to be available only between the hours of eight o'clock a. m. and six o'clock p. m., in actual passage to and from school, and the said grantee and his or its successors and assigns, shall sell such tickets whenever requested so to do, when schools are in session, by a pupil who shall present a certificate from a teacher, approved by the principal of such school, that he or she is a pupil of the said school;

Provided further, that said grantee, his or its successors or assigns, shall carry free on said cars the City Marshall and deputies, and all regular police officers, and firemen of said City, when on duty, and letter carriers, subject at all times to the rules of the road.

Fifth. That the person, partnership, or corporation to whom said franchise is granted or awarded, his or its successors or assigns, shall, during the life of said franchise, pay to the City of Glendale, in lawful money of the United States, two per cent of the gross annual receipts of said grantee and his or its successors and assigns, arising from the use, operation, or possession of said franchise. Provided, that if the road for which said franchise is granted shall be an extension of an existing system of railroad, then the gross receipts shall be estimated to be one-half of the proportion of the total gross receipts of said system which the mileage of such extension bears to the total mileage of the whole system, and said estimate shall be conclusive as to the amount of the gross receipts of said extension.

Sixth. That the work of constructing said road shall be commenced in good faith within not more than four months from the date of the granting of said franchise, and shall be prosecuted thereafter in good faith and without unnecessary or avoidable intermission or delay, and that said work of construction shall be completed within not more than three years thereafter, and if said work be not so commenced, prosecuted and completed within the times, or in the manner specified, such franchise shall be forfeited.

Seventh. That all poles used in the construction and operation of said electric road shall be placed within the curb line of the streets herein designated as officially established by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, and the outer edge of poles shall in all cases be set as near the inner edge of the curb as practicable, when not otherwise directed by said Board of Trustees, and the wires suspended from said poles shall not at any point be less than nineteen (19) feet above the top of the rail; said poles shall be smooth, straight, and painted in uniform color.

That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise, shall thereupon immediately, ipso facto, effect a forfeiture thereof, and the said City, by its Board of Trustees, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited, and may exclude said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, from further use of the streets of said City, under said franchise, and said grantee and his or its successors and assigns, shall thereupon and immediately surrender all rights in and to the same, and said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

Notice is also hereby given that sealed bids in writing will be received for said franchise up to 7:30 o'clock p. m. on the 20th day of June, 1910; that the bids received will be opened at that time; that all bids must be for the payment of a stated sum in gold coin of the United States; and that the franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation who shall make the highest cash bid therefor; provided only, that at the time of opening said bids any responsible person, firm or corporation, present or represented, may bid for said franchise a sum not less than ten per cent above the highest sealed bid therefor, and that said bids so made may be raised not less than ten per cent by any other responsible bidder, and said bidding may so continue until finally said franchise shall be struck off, sold and awarded by said Board of Trustees to the highest bidder therefor in gold coin of the United States. Each sealed bid must be accompanied with cash or a certified check, payable to the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale for the full amount of said bid and no sealed bids will be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith, and the successful bidder must deposit, at least ten per cent of the amount of his bid with the City Clerk before said franchise will be struck off to him, and if he shall fail to make such deposit immediately, his bid will not be received, and will be considered as void, and said franchise will then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit as above mentioned.

Said procedure will be had until said franchise is struck off, sold and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least ten per cent of the amount of his bid as herein provided. Said successful bidder shall deposit with the City Clerk, within twenty-four hours after the acceptance of his bid, the remaining ninety per cent of the amount thereof, and in case he or it fails to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made will be forfeited, and the award of said franchise will be void, and said franchise will then and there, by said Board of Trustees, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as hereinbefore provided, and in case said bidder fails to deposit with the City Clerk the remaining ninety per cent of his bid within twenty-four hours after its acceptance, the award to him of said franchise will be set aside, and the deposit theretofore made by him will be forfeited, and no further proceedings for the sale of said franchise will be had until the same shall be re-advertised for sale.

Notice is also hereby given that the successful bidder for said franchise must, within five days after said franchise is awarded to him, or it, file with the Board of Trustees, a bond running to said City in the penal sum of Fifteen Hundred dollars, with at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said Board of Trustees, conditioned that said bidder shall well and truly observe, fulfill and perform each and every term and condition of said franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of said bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages, and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. If said bond be not so filed, the award of said franchise will be set aside, and any money paid therefor will be forfeited.

By order of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, made at a regular meeting of said Board on the 27th day of April, 1910.

G. B. WOODBERRY,

EVERYDAY ASTRONOMY.

The "Friendly Stars."

(For the News.)

It is a beautiful thought that we may make ourselves so intimately acquainted with the stars in their seasons that we shall inevitably regard them as friends.

One of the earliest facts noted by the beginner is that the stars do not rise at the same time every evening. This diffrence is due to the earth's journy round the sun, and if we watch any particular star for a few weeks, we shall find that it rises and sets about four minutes earlier every night than it did the night before. The actual progress of the earth in its orbit produces an apparent journey of the sun among the stars, completing the circle of the celestial sphere in the year. Let us take, for example, the bright star, Aldebaran, which on a winter evening may be seen northwest of Orion. About the end of February this star crosses the meridian, the highest point it reaches in the sky, about six o'clock in the evening, and sets about midnight. Watching it nightly through March and April we shall see it further and further toward the west on each successive evening, and by the end of April it may just be barely discernible in the evening twilight. By the end of May it will be so close to the sun as to be entirely invisible. We thus see that as we have been watching it the sun has been apparently approaching it from the west. In July we may see the star rising before the sun; the sun has therefore passed it, and is now east of it. At the end of November it will rise at sunset and set at sunrise; the sun is therefore directly opposite the star. Any other star south of the zenith exhibits a similar change, since the relative positions of the stars do not vary.

We may state the same facts in a different way, and it will elucidate the matter to do so.

The apparent movement of the stars from the eastern horizon, across the sky, and their setting in the west, is due, of course, to the daily rotation of the earth on its own axis; and if this were the only motion of the earth the stars would rise and set at the same time every evening all the year around and incidentally we should only see one-half of them, because the others would pass over in daylight with the sun, always exactly at the same time.

In addition to its axial rotation, however, the earth makes a gigantic journey round the sun once in a year. The distance accomplished in a day of twenty-four hours is equal to about one degree of the great circular orbit, which in time is equal to about four minutes. We are really traveling from west to east one degree every day, which brings the stars to our horizon about four minutes earlier every evening. We are thus treated to a view of every one of them in our hemisphere in the course of the twelve months. If this had been the original design of the Great Architect it could not have been better accomplished! One result of the earth's motion round the sun is that the central luminary appears to perform an annual revolution among the stars by which he is surrounded on all sides. The path which the sun appears to travel is called the zodiac, and is divided into twelve equal parts of about thirty degrees each. These are called the signs of the zodiac, and from the earliest times have been known by distinctive names, which roughly correspond to the constellations through which the sun appears to pass. For the names and dates of these signs the reader is referred to any good almanac. One of the best for this purpose was issued by the Bank of Glendale at the beginning of the year, and a careful study of its astronomical notes will well repay the student of the sky. When once we have become familiar with but even a few stars and have learned where and when to look for them, as the time approaches for their re-appearance after a period of absence from our skies, we shall look forward to greeting them with a pleasure similar to that with which we meet a returning friend.

To become familiar with the stars it is not at all necessary to learn much of the constellations which as a rule are very puzzling to amateur observers. They are highly imaginative, very ill defined, and in many cases overlap each other, so that one star may form a part of two or more constellations. Undoubtedly for more extended observations of the stars a knowledge of the constellations is necessary, but the best way to become acquainted with them is first to learn to recognize the principal stars, and gradually we shall become aware of the constellations of which they form a part and of the relative positions of the constellations themselves.

There are very few persons who have any desire to study astronomy in even the most limited degree, but what have some acquaintance with some of the stars and their most obvious groupings, and probably every one knows the group called "The Great Dipper" in the northern part of the sky, consisting of seven first magnitude stars, so placed that two of them, called "the pointers," always point to the North Star. Now the North Star never changes its position for the same latitude and to the observer at any certain place, it always occupies exactly the same spot. It is the star to which the northern axis of the earth appears to point, and is therefore also called the "North Star." As a beginning, let us find this star, and the Great Dipper, and observe them in their relations with each other eevry night for a few weeks, and when we have become quite familiar with these, we may pass on to other stars, or groups in their vicinity. LOUIS J. HOCQUARD, Prop.

RICHARDSON TRACT BEING SURVEYED.

A surveying gang was busy this week surveying part of the Richardson property on the west side of this place into building lots, the average size of which will be 50x150. At this time only the section bounded on the east by the San Fernando road, on the west by the Southern Pacific tracks, on the north by Center street and on the south by the Pacific Electric tracks will be subdivided. In addition to this there are several lots on the east side of the San Fernando road and also a number on the north side of Center street, which will be included in the subdivision, making altogether about 150 lots.

Just as soon as possible the improvement work will be started. This work will consist of graded and oiled streets, sidewalks and curbs. Three streets will be cut through the property running east and west, and one will be installed running north and south. These streets will be fine and wide and will be improved in first-class style. Altogether in this property which is now being subdivided, there are about 30 acres.

Mr. W. B. Richardson informs us that within a very short time after the completion of the surveying work a dozen or more good houses will be started. The price of these homes will range from $2000 to $3000, and it is very probable that a number will be built which will be worth as much as $5000. This, of course, will be built to sell. It is the owner's intention to make this property one of the most high-class residence properties in the valley.

There are several buildings on the property now in the region of San Fernando road and Center street, and before the surveying is completed these will have to be removed. As the Tropico postoffice building is one of these it is very probable that a postoffice building will be erected on one of the streets very near its present location.

WHAT THE AMERICAN BLUEJACKET SAYS.

It is my object in writing these few lines to present to my readers in a clear, concise way the conditions of life in our navy as they appear to the American bluejacket today.

No doubt you are all aware of the fact that the time of wooden ships and iron men has long been replaced by our iron ships and wooden men, are you not? Well, such is the condition and accompanying this great advancement we find every phase of existence, moral, mental and physical, included, seeming to have taken their rightful steps of advancement for the better.

All seems to have elevated to the standard recognized by all and called good, except the opinion of the publis all over our country, who persist that life in our navy is a severe hardship. As one speaking from experience I would like to correct this false view with what seems to me to be a life greatly to be desired by any young man. The food set before those in the navy is of a very wholesome, yet excellent quality and the quantity has always been sufficient to supply every appetite. Every facility possible is instituted for the comfort and pleasure of the men on board each man-o'-war. We also find a band aboard which furnishes music daily; also graphaphones, pianolas, etc.

Various athletic manupliances, such as punching bags, bars, boxing and efncing outfits, baseball, football, etc.

Nearly every vocation is represented in our navy. Men from every walk of life are found filling these positions much to be desired. The training received upon enlisting is unexcelled in building one up physically, and is essential to even one in civil life.

The advancement in rating is very rapid if one will but apply his spare moments to a little study. A great deal tending to advancement relies upon one's sobriety and obedience also, which is as simply attained in naval lief as in civil life. At present there are schools established throughout all the navy yards and naval stations, where the boys in the different ratings are instructed along the following lines: Seaman gunnery, seamanship, hospital work, electricity and clerical work. Many other vocations are taught also, such as carpentering, sail making, blacksmithing, painting, etc. Remember, all these ratings are classified under the head of "Petty Officers," 3rd, 2nd, 1st class and even Chief Petty Officer.

The pay of petty officers is from $33 to $77 epr month the first enlistment, and an increase thereafter. Is not our navy presenting a prospective situation to many young men, if they only accept it, not saying anything of the many interesting places one visits during an enlistment?

Let me add, before I close, my opinion is that the navy furnishes without doubt the most complete practical school we have today.

WEST GLENDALE

Mrs. J. W. Overell is reported quite ill at her home on Hawthorne street.

Mrs. C. B. Franklin of 1422 Ivy street who has been quite ill for some time, is reported very much improved.

Mr. Edwin M. Witt of 1453 West Fourth street, left on Friday for Logan, Kas., on a business trip to be gone about six weeks.

New arrivals in Glendale all the time, the latest being a little son on Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garst of West Fourth street.

Five new buildings are being erected on Milford street west of Central avenue, by the Peerless Building Co. These are all splendid buildings, costing about $3500 apiece.

A very prettily appointed luncheon was given last Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. J. Schremp, West Fourth street, in honor of Mrs. Thos. Roberts, Miss Scoville of Los Angeles and Mrs. G. W. Stroud of Tropico.

Mrs. Andrew Swandfelt and daughter, Miss Etla, who returned recently from an extended tour of the Holyland, and different points of interest in Europe, were entertained at dinner last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John L. Russ, Milford street.

Mrs. C. E. Clay of 1517 Ivy street, entertained her sister, Mrs. Ethel Haynes, and little daughter, Fern, of Los Angeles on Saturday, and on Sunday evening gave a dinner for her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Gieske and children, also of Los Angeles.

Onl three weeks more of school work, the 10th of June being decided on as the time for closing. The children are all doing excellent work in their examinations. Quite a class of graduates is expected. Commencement exercises will be held in the building this year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Giddings and son, Excel, of Amarillo, Tex., were the guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hammond, the latter part of the week. They are en route to St. Helena and other northern points where they expect to spend some time before returning to their Texas home.

The Home Helpers, a society of the Adventist church, was organized on Wednesday last at the home of Mrs. Hammond on Ivy street. Mrs. Parsons was elected president and Mrs. Lockwood, secretary. There were 14 ladies present. The next meeting will be held the first Wednesday in June.

Our friend, Mr. Warren Story, is able to be around among his friends once more, and despite all his sufferings and confabs with all the pretty school-marms' who beg him to allow them to teach under his trusteeship, he looks as young as ever and hasn't a sign of "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

There have been many gas companies who have promised wonders for Glendale, in the past few years, but the Domestic Gas company has certainly stood by this promise like men. One of the representatives of the company was here today giving every one who signed up orders to have their houses piped and stoves all ready to fire up, as the fuel has been turned into the mains, all ready for use.

The Parent-Teacher association of the West Glendale school was held at the building on Thursday last. A most interesting program was rendered, consisting of musical numbers by the four primary grades, and a splendid talk by Prof. Moyse of the High school. Prof. Moyse fully explained the changes in the work of the High school, courses, etc., and proved himself a most interesting speaker. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Hickson will entertain a large party of friends at a 500 party. Miss Genevieve Carmack of Chicago who is her house guest, being the guest of honor at both parties.

Rev. Arthur J. Francis of Chicago delivered an extremely interesting lecture at Symphony hall, Friday night, on the "Glories and Stories of Oxford" for the benefit of the building fund of the Congregational church. Mr. Francis, who was brought here by the Santa Fe railroad to deliver this lecture to the railroad employes in the car shops, is especially well qualified, having spent his boyhood there. His father is at the present time librarian of Christ Church college, where he has been for fort years. Mr. Francis' lantern slides, which are very beautiful number about one hundred. Vocal music was contributed by Mrs. John Lavender, a female baritone singer, and Mr. Francis.

THIEVES AGAIN ENTER STORE.

Just to emphasize the fact that "one good turn deserves another," crooks made a return trip to Hendrick's dry goods store on Fourth street near Brand boulevard, Monday night. The party or parties who entered the store this time are probably the ones who committed the theft a little over a week previous, but this time the robbery was not quite as successful as on the first visit.

As before entrance was gained to the roon through the rear window. This time the miscreant evidently expected to get in as he did before, but finding the latch nailed so as it was impossible to turn it, cut out a large piece of glass from the upper half of the window, and when this was done stepped through the inside window sill.

The thief was undoubtedly an old hand at the business for in making entrance he succeeded in not rousing Joseph Crowson, who was passing the night in the room, waiting for this very thing to occur. Joe was lying on the counter in the front room and claims that not until nearly 7 o'clock this morning did he know anything about the robbery. He believes that as he was sleeping at the time the robber must have drugged him in order to get away with the things without him knowing it.

"I am a very light sleeper," Joe said when speaking of the affair; "and if the fellow did not give me chloroform or something of the kind, I would certainly have heard him when he was walking about. When I awoke this morning I was shaking violently and was sick all day. I'm sure I was drugged.

Mr. Crowson was standing on the sidewalk when Mr. Hendricks arrived from Los Angeles Tuesday morning and at once told all he knew of the affair.

It is Mr. Hendrick's belief that the things are being taken to Los Angeles and sold.

"We have informed the police of Los Angeles to keep a sharp lookout for the things," said Mr. Hendricks Tuesday morning when seen by the NEWS reporter, "but although this has been done we are entertaining no hopes that the goods will be found. For several nights last week I staid in the store during the night," went on Mr. Hendricks, "but on those nights there was no attempt to enter the store. The party was probably on the watch when I went home in the evening Monday, and, thinking that no one was watching they thought it would be a fine chance to break in."

Several dollars worth of goods were taken and $15 in coin was taken from the pockets of Mr. Crowson; also his star.

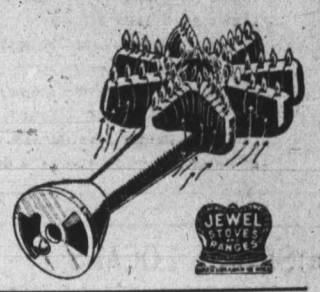
This justly known as the Best Gas Stove on Earth

DETROIT JEWEL

Burner and Flame

Enlarged View

WHY A DETROIT JEWEL FLAME IS SO HOT AND CHEAP TO OPERATE



Burners

The most important feature of any gas range is the burner, as it is intended to consume the fuel, and it is most economical in proportion to the large amount of oxygen that it will burn in proportion to the amount of gas. The Jewel is the hottest and latest burner made; our old burner, now adopted by the Garland, was nearly as hot, but it had the objection of transferring the iron to the bottom of a wet kettle when the center air spreader pieces got red hot, but the black could not be rubbed off as it was hard as granite ware. You will notice our new burner has a pyramidal fire in the center to kill the cold air space; a large amount of oxygen is admitted on each side of the flame. The burners are cast in one piece and unlike a two piece burner will not warp by contraction and expansion. Put a piece of granite iron in the fire and see what it does to it and you will have our objection to a granite iron burner.

Flame

There are five of these gas flames on each prong on a Detroit Jewel burner and there are eight prongs, beside eight pyramidal fires to kill any drafts that may come through the center of the burner. By looking at a Detroit Jewel gas jet in the dark you will notice it has two ares like A and C of the cut herewith. D is almost pure gas and B is a mixture of gas and oxygen. By taking a hatpin and inserting it in the flame B, you will notice it turns red immediately; it is very hot; while if you do the same on D, the hatpin will turn black, consequently, it is much cooler. D should never be high enough on your stove to reach the bottom of the kettle. The arc A should be below the kettle at least ¼ of an inch, which will make a very hot fire; by keeping your fire down below the kettle you will see that you are saving gas and at the same time have the hottest fire known, made of gas, outside of a blow pipe. This burns 20 per cent gas and 80 per cent oxygen, and remember, it has a row of five of these hot fires on each prong, while a sawed burner lets out about twice as much gas and burns about 50 per cent oxygen. This is why a Detroit Jewel burner is so hot and cheap to operate.
